

The Magic and Mystery of the Green Isle
with actor/storyteller Laurie Portocarrero
March 14 at 7 pm
The Christian Community
10030 Fair Oaks Blvd

The wonder of leprechauns and rainbows, the lilt of the waves and the change of the winds, the call of the past and of the ancient land....

Just in time for St Patrick's Day, come and be restored by an evening filled with the great span of all that is Irish and Celtic - from the sparkling humor to the haunting songs to the profound poems invoking blessings of the Christ on everything in our world.

Laurie Portocarrero is an actor, storyteller, teacher, and director living in upstate New York. Trained in the Chekhov method, Spatial Dynamics, and speech formation, she has performed internationally, notably playing Maria in Rudolf Steiner's mystery dramas and Marie Steiner in Fire in the Temple. Laurie tours internationally with colleague Glen Williamson in original two-person pieces including Fire in the Temple. She also tours with Crossing the Veil, exploring five real near-death experiences. She teaches drama and storytelling to Waldorf teachers and special needs communities. Laurie leads a Mystery Drama exploration group and gives workshops nationally on the mystery dramas and community-building through the dramatic arts.
