Presenters

Robert McKay is board chair for Rudolf Steiner College Canada and serves on several board committees. He has a special interest in anthroposophical meditation and lectures on this topic as part of RSCC's Foundation Studies Encounter program and further afield. Robert trained as a psychodynamic psychotherapist and works in the Ministry of Health's Mental Health and Addictions Division. He lives in Toronto with his wife Linda, and is a member of the Toronto Branch of the Anthroposophical Society in Canada.

Sanford Miller is a member of the Faust Branch and priest for The Christian Community of Sacramento.

Alice Stamm is a eurythmist living in Citrus Heights and working in the Sacramento area. She is very interested in the developments happening in the Society and School for Spiritual Science here and in Dornach.

Alex Tuchman is a beekeeper, educator, farmer, author, and student of nature. As the Director of Spikenard Farm Honeybee Sanctuary, Alex carries a wide variety of responsibilities on the farm, with the bees, in the classroom, and in administration. Alex arrived at Spikenard Farm in March of 2014 after three years as the Farm Manager of Loyola University Chicago's Student Farm in Woodstock, Illinois, his home-state. Alex is an active member of the Agriculture Section of the School for Spiritual Science and a consistent contributor to the biodynamic agriculture and natural beekeeping movements and regularly teaches at conferences in the U.S., around the world, and online. Alex's book, A Lively Hive, was published in 2021, outlining the basic biodynamic beekeeping methods that are practiced and taught at Spikenard Farm.
